

Cisco Lifecycle Services – LCSARS

Workshop Including Exam

Channel Partners aiming to achieve an Advanced Routing and Switching Specialization for the status of Silver or Gold Partner need employees representing the roles of System Engineers and Field Engineers. These employees must pass the exam Cisco Lifecycle Services Advanced Routing and Switching. This workshop offers ideal preparation for this purpose. The exam will be taken in the course of the workshop.

Course Contents

- What Are Lifecycle Services?
- Individual Phases of Lifecycle Services and Their Meaning
- Activities Assigned to the Specific Phases
- Implementation of the Tasks in Practical Application
- Benefits of Lifecycle Services in Modern, Converged Networks
- Elaboration of the Service Components, Tasks, and Objectives in a Structured Manner
- Discussion of Concrete Examples from Practical Application
- Preparation of Exam-Relevant Issues

In this course, every student will obtain material for thorough exam preparation.

Target Group

Every student supposed to assume the role of a System Engineer or Field Engineer in the scope of the Advanced Routing and Switching Specialization should attend this workshop.

Knowledge Prerequisites

The students should be motivated to familiarize themselves with conceptual aspects of Lifecycle Services.
