Welcome to Thon Hotels!

Thon Hotels a subsidiary of The Olav Thon Group originally started out as Rainbow Hotels in 1989.

Olav Thon our charismatic owner and driving force of the company, had at this point seven hotels and made a good decision to establish a Norwegian hotel chain.

The hotels were located in the first and second cities of Norway; Oslo and Bergen respectively, a brilliant concept of supplying the hotel market with high quality accommodation and a sumptuous breakfast, without all the extras that are seldom used in the main city centers of Norway, at reasonable prices.

The concept was an amazing success adding hotel after hotel each year!

Morten Thorvaldsen
Adm. Direktør
Managing Director

In October 2005 another bold step was taken by the group to re-brand itself.

But what name....? Why not use the name of our illustrious owner! The decision was made and 'Thon Hotels' was born.

The success story continued further a field to the European capital, Brussels. Since the 1st January 2007, the Thon Hotels portfolio includes airport and city centre locations with hotels and apartments ranging from quality rooms, conference to high elegance and luxury properties.

Enjoy your experience with us at Thon Hotels; our team is waiting to take care of you this time and the next!

By all means
